Input-Output Flow (glossary)

From SEBoK
input-output flow

An input or an output, or a trigger of a function (used for input-output flow, control flow). An Input-Output Flow can be made of material and/or energy, and/or information.

(Faisandier 2012)

Source

Discussion

See Logical Architecture Model Development article.

SEBoK v. 2.2, released 15 May 2020

- This page was last edited on 10 May 2020, at 08:00.