Lean Value Stream Mapping (glossary)

From SEBoK

Lean value stream mapping

Map all end-to-end linked tasks, control/decision nodes, and the interconnecting flows necessary to realize customer value. During the mapping process, eliminate all non-value added activities, minimize all necessary non-value activities, and enable the remaining activities to flow without rework, backflow, or stopping. (Oppenheim 2011)

Sources

Discussion

None.

SEBoK v. 2.2, released 15 May 2020

Retrieved from

https://www.sebokwiki.org/w/index.php?title=Lean_Value_Stream_Mapping_(glossary)&oldid=58403

This page was last edited on 9 May 2020, at 12:24.