Rhumb Line (glossary)
From SEBoK
rhumb line

A rhumb line, or its synonym loxodrome (used in geometry navigation), is a curve which crosses meridians of longitude at a constant bearing.

Source

Discussion
None.

SEBoK v. 2.4, released 17 May 2021
Retrieved from
"https://www.sebokwiki.org/w/index.php?title=Rhumb_Line_(glossary)&oldid=61099"

- This page was last edited on 17 May 2021, at 04:28.